

SWOSU Students Celebrate MLK

01.16.2012

Members of the Collegiate Activities Board and Black Student Association proudly wear their Martin Luther King Jr. long-sleeve t-shirts in anticipation of several activities taking place at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford during the week of January 16-20 in celebration of MLK. SWOSU Dean of Students Cindy Dougherty said an MLK display is located in the Memorial Student Union and throughout the week there will be tables set up with original artwork and essays about MLK from Weatherford and SWOSU students. Everyone is invited to stop by the Union.
